

Kierkegaard's Upbuilding Discourses:

Pembroke College/ Christ Church, Oxford

16-18 April 2010

From 16-18th April 2010 the Oxford Centre for Theology and Modern European Thought will be hosting a conference on Kierkegaard's Upbuilding Discourses. Speakers will include Christopher Barnett, Iben Damgaard, Arne Grøn, Helle Møller Jensen, George Pattison, Jolita Pons, David Possen, Hugh Pyper, Joel Rasmussen, Steven Shakespeare, and Claudia Welz.

This will be the first of three conferences on the discourses and will focus on the 18 Upbuilding Discourses of 1843-4 and the Three Discourses on Imagined Occasions. Further conferences will consider the 1847 discourses (Århus 2010) and the last discourses (Copenhagen 2011).

There will also be opportunities for presentations of shorter papers and those wishing to offer a paper should contact George Pattison at the earliest opportunity.

Bed and breakfast accommodation can be arranged at Pembroke College at £69 per night per person. Sessions will be in Christ Church, where lunch and dinner will also be available with pre-booking. However, central Oxford offers many opportunities for those attending to make their own meal arrangements, if that is preferred. A conference fee of £50 (£25 for students) for residents and non-residents will be charged to help cover administrative and other costs. Please pay this at the earliest opportunity. Payment in full will be required by 31st March 2010. If you wish to attend please complete the booking form below and return to george.pattison@theology.ox.ac.uk as soon as possible
